Penrith office closure due to fire

Sydwest Multicultural Services' Penrith office has been affected by a building fire on Henry Street this morning. It is reported emergency services arrived on site approximately at 1.20am, 13 December 2021 to contain the flames and extinguish the fire.

Whilst the building has sustained structural damages, we are fortunate to hear there are no reports of injury.

Our Penrith office is now closed until further notice.

'Whilst our Penrith office is closed, we will ensure business operations resume as usual. In the lead-up to holiday seasons commencing, it is imperative that we continue to provide services to the Penrith community, especially to those with immediate needs who are experiencing hardship,' said Chief Operations Officer, Nathan Burbridge.

SydWest Multicultural Services offer home care and disability services, family and youth services, employment and housing supports in Western Sydney. If you need access to community support services, contact 02 9621 6633.
